Appointees who are not Australian permanent residents or citizens are not covered by Medicare and the University advises that individuals seek their own private health cover. Appointees who are not Australian or New Zealand citizens or Australian permanent residents are responsible for seeking and having granted an appropriate visa before the commencement of their appointment/visiting period with the University.

2. The conferral of academic titles at ANU is:

- Based upon merit, as demonstrated through a transparent and rigorous process;
- Consistent with the recognition of equal opportunity;
- Focused on the holistic recognition of expertise and achievements in research/creative activity, education, service, as demonstrated through various forms of evidence;
- In alignment with University strategy and legislative obligations;
- Subject to review before renewal; and
- Not subject to quota.

3. A conferred academic title is an unpaid appointment. The conferral of an academic title by ANU does not establish any employment relationship between the University and the recipient, nor does it alter any existing employment relationship with another organisation or institution. The conferral of an academic title does not entitle the recipient to any salary payments or alter any existing salary payments from their home institution.
