

Policy: Procurement probity

Purpose

To ensure ethics are upheld when undertaking procurement to:

- a. protect the integrity of each procurement being undertaken;
- b. promote public confidence; and
- c. manage conflicts of interests, both perceived and actual.

Probity should not be viewed as a barrier to the achievement of value of money. Instead, probity should be applied to each aspect of the procurement process with common sense and flexibility.

Overview

The probity framework for purchasing goods and services with University funds.

Scope

This Policy applies across the University.

Policy Statement

Principles

1. The University is committed to ensuring a high standard of probity in all phases of the procurement process.
2. University procurement is conducted with reference to the requirements outlined in the Procurement Probity procedure.
