

Policy: ANU+

Purpose

To outline the principles for the ANU+ program.

Overview

This policy sets out the principles for the ANU+ program.

Scope

This policy applies to students, and staff who administer the ANU+ program.

Policy statement

1. The ANU+ program:

- * Aligns with the strategic directions of the University, including its commitment to better outcomes for our community, the environment, our nation and the world alongside the commitment to the service of our nation;
- * Encourages students to give back to the community;
- * Allows students to reflect on their co-curricular experiences to gain a deeper understanding of themselves and the world around them; and
- * Allows students to develop their skills related to employability prospects.

2. ANU+ is recorded on students' official academic transcripts and graduation statements in accordance with the Academic statements policy and procedure.
