

Policy: Insurance

Purpose

To inform staff and students of the University Insurance program and procedures.

Overview

An overview of the University's Insurance program and procedures.

Scope

This Policy applies across the University.

Policy Statement

Principles

2. The Australian National University maintains insurance cover to protect it and Council, Officers, Employees, Volunteers and Students as well as its assets against claims arising from University related activities or from natural occurrences such as fire, storm damage, impact, motor vehicle etc.
3. The University also maintains insurances as required by law (for example, workers' compensation insurance and compulsory third party motor insurance (CTP)).
4. In addition the University maintains a Self Insurance Reserve for insurance losses that except for the policy excess or coverage limit, would otherwise be covered under the commercial insurance program.
